FARM BILL 101

Approximately 40% of all food aid goes to nutrition programs — including Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), the Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) and the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP). These programs provide assistance to low-income Oregonians.

In 2016, SNAP provided over $13 billion in nutrition assistance to Oregonians living in food-insecure households. SNAP benefits paid in Oregon increased from $4,082 to $4,921 during this same time. In 2016, SNAP provided assistance to 1,700 Oregonians within two years.

SNAP support nutrition education offers Oregonians with a range of programs to help recipients gain skills to work more independently. SNAP assistance increased from $48,850 to $2,989,000 during the same time.

TEFAP is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, TEFAP distributed 650,000 pounds of food to low-income families in Oregon.

CSFP is the only USDA nutrition program that provided assistance to federal employees. CSFP distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in 2016. CSFP distributed 2,600,000 pounds of food to low-income seniors in 2016.

FFLC is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, FFLC distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in Oregon.

Two thirds of SNAP recipients are children, elderly or disabled. This year, new household rules in SNAP for less than a year, and for recipients who have left the program in the past two years.

SNAP support nutrition education offers Oregonians with a range of programs to help recipients gain skills to work more independently. SNAP assistance increased from $48,850 to $2,989,000 during this same time.

FFLC is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, FFLC distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in Oregon.

CSFP is the only USDA nutrition program that provided assistance to federal employees. CSFP distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in 2016. CSFP distributed 2,600,000 pounds of food to low-income seniors in 2016.

FFLC is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, FFLC distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in Oregon.

SNAP support nutrition education offers Oregonians with a range of programs to help recipients gain skills to work more independently. SNAP assistance increased from $48,850 to $2,989,000 during this same time.

FFLC is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, FFLC distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in Oregon.

CSFP is the only USDA nutrition program that provided assistance to federal employees. CSFP distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in 2016. CSFP distributed 2,600,000 pounds of food to low-income seniors in 2016.

FFLC is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, FFLC distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in Oregon.

SNAP support nutrition education offers Oregonians with a range of programs to help recipients gain skills to work more independently. SNAP assistance increased from $48,850 to $2,989,000 during this same time.

FFLC is a community program that provides nutritious and affordable food for low-income families. In 2016, FFLC distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in Oregon.

CSFP is the only USDA nutrition program that provided assistance to federal employees. CSFP distributed 1,700,000 to low-income seniors in 2016. CSFP distributed 2,600,000 pounds of food to low-income seniors in 2016.
Alleviating hunger by creating access to food

In Oregon, the scope of the problem is dramatic. Oregon is currently the sixth hungriest state in the country, with roots in political climate. We are concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

At the same time, we are also concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

And 44% are single moms. (Edwards 2016).

According to the Oregon Department of Education, 54.3% of seven Oregonians faces hunger, and one in six is food-insecure. Kids in Oregon are eligible for free and reduced school meals.

In January, the Oregon Hunger Task Force took an in-depth look at the landscape of Oregon's poverty and hunger. They revealed that the main barrier to degree completion isn’t tuition costs, but rather student debt.

In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000. In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000.

Love your neighbor! Your gift matched! Thanks to a generous donor, all February gifts will be matched up to $50,000. Donate online at foodforlanecounty.org and call (541) 343-2822 x124 or sroybal@foodforlanecounty.org to read about the listening session, follow us on Facebook.

Driving hunger out of Lane County

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

For more information, please contact Karen Reardon or Brandon McNeil at (541) 247-2022 or info@foodforlanecounty.org.

Also, we are concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

And 44% are single moms. (Edwards 2016).

According to the Oregon Department of Education, 54.3% of seven Oregonians faces hunger, and one in six is food-insecure. Kids in Oregon are eligible for free and reduced school meals.

In January, the Oregon Hunger Task Force took an in-depth look at the landscape of Oregon's poverty and hunger. They revealed that the main barrier to degree completion isn’t tuition costs, but rather student debt.

In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000. In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000.

Love your neighbor! Your gift matched! Thanks to a generous donor, all February gifts will be matched up to $50,000. Donate online at foodforlanecounty.org and call (541) 343-2822 x124 or sroybal@foodforlanecounty.org to read about the listening session, follow us on Facebook.

Driving hunger out of Lane County

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

For more information, please contact Karen Reardon or Brandon McNeil at (541) 247-2022 or info@foodforlanecounty.org.

Also, we are concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

And 44% are single moms. (Edwards 2016).

According to the Oregon Department of Education, 54.3% of seven Oregonians faces hunger, and one in six is food-insecure. Kids in Oregon are eligible for free and reduced school meals.

In January, the Oregon Hunger Task Force took an in-depth look at the landscape of Oregon's poverty and hunger. They revealed that the main barrier to degree completion isn’t tuition costs, but rather student debt.

In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000. In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000.

Love your neighbor! Your gift matched! Thanks to a generous donor, all February gifts will be matched up to $50,000. Donate online at foodforlanecounty.org and call (541) 343-2822 x124 or sroybal@foodforlanecounty.org to read about the listening session, follow us on Facebook.

Driving hunger out of Lane County

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

For more information, please contact Karen Reardon or Brandon McNeil at (541) 247-2022 or info@foodforlanecounty.org.

Also, we are concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

And 44% are single moms. (Edwards 2016).

According to the Oregon Department of Education, 54.3% of seven Oregonians faces hunger, and one in six is food-insecure. Kids in Oregon are eligible for free and reduced school meals.

In January, the Oregon Hunger Task Force took an in-depth look at the landscape of Oregon's poverty and hunger. They revealed that the main barrier to degree completion isn’t tuition costs, but rather student debt.

In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000. In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000.

Love your neighbor! Your gift matched! Thanks to a generous donor, all February gifts will be matched up to $50,000. Donate online at foodforlanecounty.org and call (541) 343-2822 x124 or sroybal@foodforlanecounty.org to read about the listening session, follow us on Facebook.

Driving hunger out of Lane County

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

For more information, please contact Karen Reardon or Brandon McNeil at (541) 247-2022 or info@foodforlanecounty.org.

Also, we are concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

And 44% are single moms. (Edwards 2016).

According to the Oregon Department of Education, 54.3% of seven Oregonians faces hunger, and one in six is food-insecure. Kids in Oregon are eligible for free and reduced school meals.

In January, the Oregon Hunger Task Force took an in-depth look at the landscape of Oregon's poverty and hunger. They revealed that the main barrier to degree completion isn’t tuition costs, but rather student debt.

In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000. In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000.

Love your neighbor! Your gift matched! Thanks to a generous donor, all February gifts will be matched up to $50,000. Donate online at foodforlanecounty.org and call (541) 343-2822 x124 or sroybal@foodforlanecounty.org to read about the listening session, follow us on Facebook.

Driving hunger out of Lane County

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

Thank you to everyone who supported the Letters from Food Drive. All proceeds from the event will go to the Lane County Food Drive. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving. We held our event on November 8th, before Thanksgiving.

For more information, please contact Karen Reardon or Brandon McNeil at (541) 247-2022 or info@foodforlanecounty.org.

Also, we are concerned there may be changes to the social safety net that serves the people who rely on us and a variety of government programs to put food on the table.

And 44% are single moms. (Edwards 2016).

According to the Oregon Department of Education, 54.3% of seven Oregonians faces hunger, and one in six is food-insecure. Kids in Oregon are eligible for free and reduced school meals.

In January, the Oregon Hunger Task Force took an in-depth look at the landscape of Oregon's poverty and hunger. They revealed that the main barrier to degree completion isn’t tuition costs, but rather student debt.

In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000. In February, an anonymous donor will match all financial gifts up to $50,000.

Love your neighbor! Your gift matched! Thanks to a generous donor, all February gifts will be matched up to $50,000. Donate online at foodforlanecounty.org and call (541) 343-2822 x124 or sroybal@foodforlanecounty.org to read about the listening session, follow us on Facebook.