SUMMER FOOD STARTS JUNE 27
Kids eat free this summer thanks to FFLC’s Summer Food Program, which provides free lunches to children and teens 18 and younger. Most sites open June 27 and serve congregate meals to groups, in congregate meal sites. That means we’ll ask kids to stay at the site to eat their meals.

SWEET DREAMS ARE MADE OF CHEESE
Dore and James Gruending own Cheese Bliss, serving delicious cheese sandwiches out of their 900-square-foot store in downtown Eugene. For them, participating in FFLC’s Grilled Cheese Experience is personal.

“The Grilled Cheese Experience is perfect for people like us,” said Dore. “It’s really accomplished something that people are going to appreciate.”

“The Grilled Cheese Experience is just that — an experience,” said Dore. “We’re here to nurture the community, which makes us really proud.”

“From the bottom of our hearts, we’re so grateful,” said Madison in Eugene. For them, participating in FFLC’s Grilled Cheese Experience is personal.
